If you already used our services in the past, you will know that we offer tokens and the support performance and settlement of commercial transactions related to our tokens, either personally or through our web pages www.dynagro.cz, as well as by other means including web pages of our partners. These rules for the processing of personal data, which we collect through these web pages or by other means in connection with these web pages, apply to all such personal data.

A. The administrator of personal data

DynAgro is the administrator of your personal data. Being an administrator means that DynAgro adheres to the principles of personal data processing and handles your personal data exclusively in accordance with applicable law, decides on the purpose and means of processing your personal data and ensures strict security of your personal data.

We process personal data in accordance with legal regulations, including but not limited to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 95/46 / EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and by law No. 110/19 Coll., on the processing of personal data.

B. To whom do these rules apply?

These rules on the processing of personal data apply to the processing of personal data of all entities within tokenization project, whose personal data DynAgro processes related to its services and to the operation of its web pages www.dynagro.cz (hereinafter the „Web pages“), and this namely for:

- Visitors of the Web pages;

- Contact persons of DynAgro's clients and other persons, with which DynAgro is in contact related to provision of its services (especially in the area of tokens);
- Contact persons of any third party, with whom DynAgro cooperates or wants to cooperate (for instance suppliers and business partners);

C. Which personal data do we process?

DynAgro processes the following personal data or categories of personal data. This does not mean that we process all the personal data listed below for each data subject.

- identification data such as name, surname, telephone number, e-mail, date of birth, residence address, birth number, passport number, ID number, identity card number, citizenship;
- other personal data obtained in connection with the tokenization project, such as photos of ID cards and persons (only in connection to the AML Act);
- information on browsing the www.dynagro.cz website, such as cookies, IP address, information about your device;

D. Why do we process your personal data?

DynAgro processes personal data only for legal reasons, which are illustrated below.

Compliance with legal obligations

Some aspects of the tokenization project are regulated by law. In order to ensure their observance, to properly provide our services and to carry out business activities, we process some of your personal data.

Performance of the contract

The agreement, on the basis of which we provide our services to you, or other agreements that we have concluded between ourselves, require the processing of certain personal data in order to fulfill their object and purpose.

Legitimate interests of the administrator

DynAgro's legitimate interest is to effectively carry out activities related to the tokenization project, provide services in accordance with legal regulations, secure its premises, documentation and equipment and perform the necessary supervision of activities, manage internal processes and services to promote and communicate with clients and others. DynAgro assesses each case individually, in order to verify that the processing of personal data is based on a legitimate interest.

Consent

In exceptional cases and only if none of the above legal reasons for the processing of personal data can be used, DynAgro may request your explicit consent to the processing of your personal data. You can revoke your consent at any time.

E. Why do we process personal data in general?

Compliance with contractual obligations within the tokenization project

DynAgro processes personal data mainly in order to properly fulfill its obligations within the tokenization project (especially when issuing tokens and settling business transactions related to the tokenization project) and to carry out its business activities to the extent agreed in the purchase contract concluded with the client.

We also process personal data in the case of communication with parties interested in our services.

Compliance with legal obligations

DynAgro processes personal data in order to fulfill its legal obligations related to the tokenization project, e.g. in the area of measures against money laundering and terrorist financing.

Organizational security and cooperation with suppliers

DynAgro processes personal data in order to ensure the efficient operation of business activities and in connection with ensuring business relationships with clients and suppliers of goods and services.

Exercising claims from contractual relations after the termination of the contract

DynAgro processes personal data necessary to protect our rights in the event of an actual, imminent or anticipated dispute or complaint or claim.

Web-pages

We also process the personal data of Web-page users in order to evaluate the traffic on our Web-pages and to improve the user environment of the Web-pages. Our Web-pages uses cookies. A cookie is a simple text file that a visited website sends to your internet browser. You can set the rules for the use of cookies in your browser. You can find more information about cookies in the Cookies Policy.

Dissemination of information, news and other communications

In some cases, we also use personal information to disseminate business communications containing information about DynAgro services to our existing clients.

We may only use personal data to send commercial communications if the addressee has not refused such an option.

Everyone has the right at any time to refuse to send commercial communications by e-mail under token@dynagro.cz or via a link in a commercial communication free of charge.

Not always when we contact you, it is a business message. We also use your contact information to communicate with you or, for example, to send information about updating these Privacy rules or the General Terms and Conditions.

F. How we obtain personal data

We most often obtain your personal data directly from you, because you share it with DynAgro. When providing services, we also obtain personal data from other third parties or from publicly available sources.

G. How long do we store your data?

We process personal data only for the period specified in legal regulations or for the time necessary for the purposes of their processing. We are constantly assessing whether there is still a need to process certain personal data needed for a specific purpose. If we find that they are no longer needed for any of the purposes, for which they were processed, we will destroy the data.

H. To whom do we give access to your personal data?

As a rule, we give access to your personal data to anyone outside DynAgro. Personal data processed in accordance with these rules may be further made available to authorized state authorities, institutions or other entities, provided that the conditions specified in legal regulations are met. If it is necessary to fulfill the purpose of processing personal data, necessary for the fulfillment of legal obligations or our obligations under the contract, if it is necessary to protect our legitimate interests or if it follows from your consent, we may transfer your personal data to external suppliers, who support us in providing our services. As part of the tokenization project, DynAgro cooperates mainly with DIVÉI PRIME Coinage a.s.

I. What are your rights?

You have the right to request information and access to your personal data that we process. You also have the right to ask us to correct or delete your personal data or, in certain cases, to limit its processing. You can also object to the processing of your personal data directly by DynAgro or ask us for the transferability of your personal data.

You also have the right to contact your Office for Personal Data Protection with your request, complaint or other suggestion at its registered office at., Pplk. Sochora 27, 170 00 Prague 7, telephone number +420 234 665 111, e-mail: posta@uouu.cz.

More information about your rights is also available on the website of the Office for Personal Data Protection <https://www.uouu.cz/6-prava-subjektu-udaj/d-27276> or directly in the General Regulation on Personal Data Protection.

J. Contact details

If you have any questions regarding the processing of your personal data, please contact the Data Protection Officer Veronika Burianova, telephone number: (+420) 603 200920, e-mail: vburianova@dynagro.cz.

K. Updates of these rules

These rules may be updated to reflect changes that occur in connection with the processing of your personal data.
